SPECIAL COUNSEL TO THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

The Agency has retained the law firm of Arnold & Porter so that Mitchell Rogovin, a partner in that firm, will serve as consulting counsel to the Director of Central Intelligence and the Central Intelligence Agency in connection with pending investigations by congressional committees investigating the Intelligence Community and related matters. In such capacity, Mr. Rogovin will consult with the Director and other officials of the Agency regarding the pending investigations and will, as appropriate, and when possible, accompany Agency personnel who appear as witnesses before these congressional committees. Effective 3 July 1975, Mr. Rogovin will be Special Counsel to the Director of Central Intelligence.
